oooOOooo

A question has arisen as to the authority which would take the salute at the parades to be held at different places in connection with the celebrations on the occasion of the inauguration of the Republic of India on the 26th January 1950. It has been decided that the highest civil authority in the Station irrespective of the rank in the Warrant of Precedence should take the salute. Local Military Formations are aware of this practice and have been instructed to follow it.
